Israel is changing tactics. Britain announced new sanctions targeting trade with Israeli settlements in the West Bank. In response, Israel ordered the British Consulate in East Jerusalem to close and barred 12 British elected officials and others from entering the country. Israel is responding with countermeasures rather than diplomatic protests alone.

You have a bag of M&M's. One out of every four M&M's explodes when you eat it. You decide not to eat M&M's. Does that make you M&M-phobic?

In Britain, they're asking what sanctions were imposed when Iran slaughtered more than 40,000 protesters. But Israel, for the most minor transgression, gets the most sanctions.

A woman who got married and then saw her husband detained, is on TikTok crying. She apparently believed marriage would shield him from deportation. Marriage alone does not automatically resolve someone's immigration status.

Did you know Stephen A. Smith claims California used his phone-location records to determine how many days he worked in the state for tax purposes? Shaquille O'Neal has also said that after signing a contract paying him $20 million annually, taxes and other deductions left him with only about $7 million.

Republicans held their first national midterm convention in Dallas. Democrats have not held a comparable national event, because they would trade blows.

We have gone from "abortion is health care" to "killing your children is not murder."

September 8 marked the 60th anniversary of Star Trek. The series helped inspire generations of scientists, engineers, inventors, and technology companies. I admit it: I am a Trekkie.

In the 1990s, Michael Jordan was reported to have said, "Republicans buy sneakers, too." Nike appears to have forgotten that lesson.

Can fraudulently using an employee discount land you in jail? In Singapore, it can. An American woman paid $300 through Craigslist for access to a Marriott employee discount, falsely claimed to be an employee's sister. She pleaded guilty after using it at a Singapore hotel.

Florida Amendment 3 concerns homestead exemptions. When Marco Rubio supported increasing Florida's homestead exemption from $25,000 to $50,000, local governments warned that police, fire departments, and other services could suffer. This was 2008. In 2027 the exemption goes from $50,000 to $150,000. Then $250,000 in 2028.
They are using the same scare tactics.

You know the thousands of Palestinians prisoners Israel released in swaps. They're now finding themselves "Unalived."

"Jet plunges 27,000 feet in 10 minutes," makes it sound as though the aircraft was in an uncontrolled fall. In reality, the plane had a pressurization problem, and the pilots descended rapidly and safely.

Twenty-five years ago, President George W. Bush made a two-state solution and Palestinian democracy central parts of American foreign policy. Palestinian elections were held in 2006, and Hamas won a legislative majority. It was another lesson in what can happen when outside countries try to reshape Middle Eastern politics.

Woman: "No one could have imagined modern weapons when the Second Amendment was written."

Man: "No one could have imagined modern political movements when the Nineteenth Amendment was written."

So Trump is saying that if Republicans hold Congress, there will be a $5,000 dividend for every adult. If Democrats were in control, they'd be costing us $15,000+ per adult in additional fraud, taxes, waste, spending, etc. I'm not sure Trump is so crazy?

The lesson of the screw: Turn to the right to make it solid and stable. Turn to the left to dismantle and destroy.

September 11th marked the 25th anniversary of the terrorist attacks. I was on a plane that landed just one hour before the first jet struck the World Trade Center. That was the last time America was truly one. It is difficult to believe what has happened to our country during the past 25 years. May the memories of the victims and heroes be a blessing.

The lone holdout juror in the Lindsay Clancy trial was a Black man. The jury deadlocked 11–1, with the holdout favoring a guilty verdict while the other jurors favored finding Clancy not criminally responsible. Whatever one thinks of his conclusion, he had the right and responsibility to follow his own judgment.

Remember that on 9/11, it was Palestinians who celebrated.

Biden was going to wipe out student loans. Kamala was offering $25,000 in down-payment assistance on a house. But Trump is the insane one for offering $5,000 to every working individual.

"We've seen the pictures of Mamdani and AOC laughing at the 9/11 Memorial. Make of it what you will"

Only 28% of 8th graders nationally are proficient in reading. But they can all tell you what non-binary is.

Jerusalem's 9/11 Living Memorial is the only memorial outside the United States that displays the names of every victim of the attacks.

Here is the problem with pausing artificial-intelligence development: If killer robots are eventually created, would you rather they be American or Chinese?

On social media, a guy says he pays $584 a month for health insurance. His kid had a bike accident, and the ER bill was $2,940. The insurance company negotiated it down to $1,910, but he still had to pay it out of pocket because of his deductible. Moral of the story: Don't go to the ER when you could have gone to urgent care.

If we cannot blame all Muslims for what happened 25 years ago, we cannot blame all white people for what happened 200 years ago.

RFK Jr. invoked his uncle's political platform of tax cuts, a strong national defense, and opposition to communism.

"During COVID Democrats closed every Church in the country, while keeping open the liquor stores and big box stores as essential businesses"

There is a mutual defense pact between Saudi Arabia, Turkey, and Pakistan. The conditions were ripe for that pact to be activated, but guess what? The other countries did nothing to help Saudi Arabia. Now Saudi Arabia is knocking on the United States' door, but the U.S. probably won't do anything. If they want to deal with Israel, they're going to have to make an agreement with Israel.

For those that celebrate the Yom Kippur holiday. "May you be sealed [in the Book of Life] for a good year

Meme of the Week:
Brothers and sisters are childhood roommates, who become lifelong friends.

Bonus Meme of the Week:
Marriage is spending a lifetime with someone who knows all your faults—and has chosen to organize them alphabetically.
